2019 14TH ANNUAL EVIDENCE BASED PRACTICE CONFERENCE

Date & Time: Friday, March 22, 2019; 8am – 4:30pm (Doors open at 7:30am)

Location: Mother Louis Room, Motherhouse, St. Joseph Center, St. Joseph of Orange Medical Center, 480 S. Batavia St., Orange CA 92968

Course Description: This 8-hour course will include an overview of current social and ethical issues that influence the care of the hospitalized patient. Topics include identifying victims of human trafficking, understanding the types, effects, and uses of marijuana, and strategies to enhance care of the transgender patient. Also included are resources for our caregivers as well as a panel of experts to field questions and discuss cases.

Additionally this conference will feature a poster break-out session highlighting best practice and nursing research projects within St. Joseph Hospital.

Course Objectives: Upon successful completion of the course, the participants should be able to:

- * Recognize signs of human trafficking
- * Identify local resources for the victim of human trafficking
- * Describe medicinal uses of marijuana
- * Discuss the effects of THC on the brain
- * Examine the effects of marijuana on the fetus and the newborn
- * Formulate effective strategies for assessing and communicating with the transgender patient
- * Modify care to manage transgender healthcare issues
- * Identify available wellness resources for staff

Speakers:

- * Lt. Happy J. Medina, Investigator, OC Human Trafficking Task Force, Anaheim Police Department
- * Investigator Kyle Markwald, OC Human Trafficking Task Force, Newport Beach Police Department
- * Jill Donaldson, MSN, RN, CNS, CMSRN, Mission Hospital
- * Hudson Tibbetts, MSN, RN, LAC and USC Medical Center

Brainstorming Activity

- Find a partner or trio
- Discuss
 - How can your institutional repository (IR) incorporate social justice or critical librarianship ideas?
 - What outreach has worked well to increase diversity in your IR?
 - What experiences can you share from your organization's IR?
- Share back to the larger group
