In the article listed above, three figure panels inadvertently contained incorrect labels.

- In Fig. 1B, the label for “increased feedback from macula densa” should have read “reduced feedback from macula densa.”
- In Fig. 2A, the label for “increased feedback from macula densa” should have read “reduced feedback from macula densa.”
- In Fig. 2B, the label for “reduced feedback from macula densa” should have read “increased feedback from macula densa.”
